

About Westmount Magazine

Description

WestmountMag.ca is a bilingual urban Lifestyle publication online accessible online from any platform

Westmount Magazine was created to inform and serve the residents of Westmount and surrounding communities. The publication focuses on Westmount's community life and Montreal's cultural scene, upcoming shows and reviews, environmental issues, animal rights and protection, residential and commercial real estate, food, poetry, health and wellness, and other topics popular with our readers.

Our weekly newsletter features new articles covering community and arts events, as well as performing arts, design and architecture, economics, travel and leisure, health, wellness and personal development, family law, and other topics of interest to our audience.

WestmountMag.ca also provides readers with a comprehensive listing of merchants, real estate agents and professional service providers serving Westmount and the surrounding municipalities, as well as a calendar of events listed by category.

Our readers are connected, affluent and engaged adults, residents of Westmount and surrounding municipalities

Our growing and highly engaged readership is predominantly made up of women between the ages of 35 and 65. All our editorial and advertising content is carefully indexed to ensure optimal natural referencing.
