Description

Life-size, life-like sculptures of birds out of wood

For those who love nature; who might wonder at the intriguing physics of flight; who admire a bird's call and its natural instincts as a hunter, or a survivor; as well as those who appreciate art in a form that displays multiple sectors of expertise and fine detail, I have a gallery for you!

I create life-size, life-like sculptures of birds out of wood. They are carved, textured and painted, and mounted on various bases depicting their natural habitats and my own artistic whims. Open to commissions.
