

A rare pearl surrounded by greenery and calm

Description

Splendid detached house adjoining the wooded grounds of the Congregation of the Sisters of Notre-Dame

August 20, 2021

5179, Avenue Brillon, Montréal
Notre-Dame-de-Grâce

The residence

Located at the end of a residential cul-de-sac overlooking the grounds of the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre-Dame, this detached house, typical of the last century, is surrounded by greenery and calm.

Comprising 4 bedrooms, 2 full bathrooms and 1 powder room, this spacious and bright detached home has been renovated to enhance its character and history. All materials used in the work are period or replicated: brass knobs and fixtures, cast iron heaters, porcelain sink, mouldings, fireplace mantles, large hot tub, floors and tiles, bricks, etc.

This spacious and bright detached home has been renovated to highlight its character and history.

No detail has been spared to combine beauty and functionality in an original style adapted to today's taste. A small haven of peace, the large backyard surrounded by mature trees offers privacy and tranquillity that are rare in the city. In addition, it is worth noting that there are no neighbours to the rear or on the right-hand side.
