

Geordie's "I Am Eleven" Film Screening Fundraiser

Description

An epic and intimate account of young personalities finding their way in the world today

Geordie Theatre will host a fundraiser screening of the documentary film "I Am Eleven" on Friday, October 4 from 7-9:30 pm. at Selwyn House School, 95 Cote St. Antoine, Westmount.

A globe-spanning portrait of humanity at a crucial age – no longer children, not quite adults, preparing to inherit a world changing as quickly and dramatically as they are. This documentary focuses on a series of eleven-year-olds from 15 countries, each speaking in their own words and revealing the private obsessions and public concerns that animate their lives. It is simultaneously an epic survey of the similarities and distinctions between cultures and an intimate account of these young personalities finding their way in the world today.

A globe-spanning portrait of humanity at a crucial age – no longer children, not quite adults, preparing to inherit a world changing as quickly and dramatically as they are.

Australian filmmaker Genevieve Bailey travelled the world for six years talking with 11-year-olds to compose this insightful, funny and moving documentary portrait of childhood. Admission: $10/children (under 18) and $20/Adults. Tickets on sale at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/i-am-eleven-screening-fundraiser-for-geordie-theatre-tickets-71233151273>.
