

Westmount Magazine
looks back at 2019

Description

A sampling of our most-read articles of the past year

Here are some of the articles that captured our readers' attention in 2019. While some reflect current topics of world interest, many are closer to home. These results are also valuable indicators that give us insight into the topics of interest to our readers and help us guide our editorial line.

We would also like to take this opportunity to offer our most sincere thanks to our loyal readers, contributors and advertisers for your continued support and wish you a Happy New Year 2020!

So here are the Top 10 most-read articles in 2019:

Nº 1

Westmounters discuss the future of Westmount Park

What exactly is in store for the city's largest and most beloved park?

As reported by Patricia Dumais

The City of Westmount tendered a contract for a Feasibility Study – Westmount Park Rehabilitation (Étude de faisabilité – réflexion du parc Westmount) to Stantec Experts-Conseils on April 1, 2019. The city has yet to specify the exact nature of the rehabilitation... \(continue reading\)

Nº 2

Potcake rescues dogs on the Turks and Caicos Islands

Dedicated volunteers arrange international adoptions for island stray dogs

By Michael Walsh

“Whoever declares that love at first sight doesn’t exist has never witnessed the purity of a puppy or looked deep into a puppy’s eyes. If they did, their lives would change considerably.” Elizabeth Parker, Paw Prints in the Sand. I have always been a huge proponent of using shelters to find... \(continue reading\)

Nº 3

Zimbelism: Life captured in a second

An interview with the celebrated humanist photographer

By Carmen J. Michaud

Photography by James St Laurent

A friend of mine had a back injury and asked if I might replace her for a few weeks as a receptionist for two dentists. She was unable to sit or stand for extended periods. This was not my usual line of work but it meant some pay and an opportunity to meet new people... \(continue reading\)

Nº 4

Last summer for Montreal calèches

Despite the impending calèche ban the horses still need us

By Mirella Colalillo

Montrealers are counting the days. In six months on December 31, 2019, the long-awaited calèche ban will take effect. This result was reached after 30 years of activism starting in the 90s with the activists of the group Anti-calèche Action who scored many wins despite the fact that... \(continue reading\)

Nº 5

On

September 9, the Quebec government and the Caisse de depot (CDPQ) announced $192 million worth of mitigation measures to counter some of the ill effects of the REM (Réseau express métropolitain) electric train that is under construction on the Deux-Montagnes line. \(continue reading\)

Nº 6

Findlay home, a part of Westmount history

Designed and built by one of Montreal's premier architectural firms

By Joseph Marovitch

Located near the summit of Westmount on a quiet street called Lexington there rests an Old English Tudor home that has been on that spot of land since 1926. Many pass by and curiously glance at the property, never realizing how profoundly historic it is, and how that home ties into... \(continue reading\)

Nº 7

What to do to stay married together

The legal I do's and don'ts of marriage and co-habiting couples

By Linda Hammerschmid

Anyone who has ever listened to me on Dr. Laurie Betito's CJAD program, Passion, knows that I always recommend getting either a marriage contract, or if simply planning on living together, a cohabitation contract. Why? Because sadly 50% of you WILL split up. And usually, unless you... \(continue reading\)

Nº 8

Vittorio Rossi tribute a smashing success

Canadian-Italian playwright/actor honoured as part of the Blue Metropolis International Literary Festival
By Byron Toben

A week before the one-night Tribute to playwright Vittorio Rossi at the majestic Rialto Theatre as part of the Blue Metropolis International Literary Festival, M.C./organizer Marianne Ackerman confided to me that she feared a small turnout. She need not have worried... \(continue reading\)

Nº 9

A win for developers, more loss for residents

A commentary on the AGIL report on redeveloping Westmount's South East

By

Patricia Dumais

The City of Westmount finally released the Société AGIL obni (AGIL) report on October 2, 2018. The purpose of the long awaited report, commissioned by the city in March of 2017, is to advise the city on how the South East area of Westmount could be redeveloped. While most... \(continue reading\)

Nº 10

Essay: My Valiant Harpooner

With my osteopath I feel like we are rewriting the story of my body together
By

Andrea Lynn, PhD

FEATURED

ESSAY: MY VALIANT HARPOONER

READ THE ARTICLE >

I am moved by fancies that are curled. Around these images, and cling:. The notion of some infinitely gentle Infinitely suffering thing. – Preludes T.S. Eliot. When I walk into the osteopath's office he smiles, wipes down his table and tells me to "hop on." The gesture recalls early childhood... \(continue reading\)

Feature image: Pixabay

clearly

2 GLASSES
FROM $39

SHOP GLASSES

Image not found or type unknown

Category

1. Review

Tags

1. AGIL report
2. Andrea Lynn PhD
3. Byron Toben
4. Carmen J. Michaud
5. Findlay Home
6. George S. Zimbel
7. James St-Laurent
8. John Symon
9. Joseph Marovitch
10. Linda Hammerschmid
11. marriage
12. michael walsh
13. Mirella Colalillo
14. Patricia Dumais
15. Patrick Barnard
16. Vittorio Rossi
17. Westmount Magazine
18. Westmount Park

Date Created

December 2019